Live Wax Museum

Last week, Mrs. Shedd's class presented their biography projects to family members in the form of a living wax museum. The students have spent several weeks researching the life of a famous person. On Friday they dressed as the person they researched and took on their identity for the afternoon. We had many prestigious visitors here at B-HVS, including but not limited to: Stephen Hawking, Jane Goodall, Rosa Parks, Mother Teresa, Georgia O'Keefe, Henry Ford, Ruby Bridges, Orville and Wilbur Wright, Queen Victoria and Harriet Beecher Stowe. Congratulations to the third graders on all of their hard work!
